The poster features a central graphic of a black post with four grey arrow-shaped signs pointing in different directions. The signs contain icons: a kayak, a fishing hook, a fishing net, and binoculars. Each sign is accompanied by a white hashtag symbol (#). The background is a textured green with faint images of trees and water. Four small photographs are placed around the central graphic: a woman jumping over tires, people kayaking on a river, a group of people on a wooden dock, and a group of people on a trail.
