Boating & Fishing

The Appomattox River contains a wide range of species, including smallmouth bass, striped bass, white bass, sunfish, crappie, and trout. Fishing is available from public boat ramps and handicapped-accessible fishing pier open 24 hours a day. The public boat ramp and handicap-accessible fishing pier is open 24 hours a day. Primitive campsites are available.

The Appomattox River and ends at the CSX railroad trestle, and a rustic, very old trees. Open for tours by appointment only.

Fishing licenses are required for anyone fishing over the age of 16 and can be purchased from the Virginia Department of Wildlife Resources. Fishing licenses can be purchased online.

A Virginia State Scenic River
Points of Interest • Boat Access • Parks

A beautiful 1760s plantation owned by the Eppes family sits at the confluence of the James River in Hopewell.

The Old Brick House was originally a warehouse and later a home for the Eppes family. This beautiful home was once a bustling warehouse and later became a private residence. The Old Brick House has been restored to its original state and is open to the public.

Fishing

Fishing

The Appomattox River contains a wide range of species, including smallmouth bass, striped bass, white bass, sunfish, crappie, and trout. Fishing is available from public boat ramps and handicapped-accessible fishing pier open 24 hours a day. The public boat ramp and handicap-accessible fishing pier is open 24 hours a day. Primitive campsites are available.

The Appomattox River and ends at the CSX railroad trestle, and a rustic, very old trees. Open for tours by appointment only.

Fishing licenses are required for anyone fishing over the age of 16 and can be purchased from the Virginia Department of Wildlife Resources. Fishing licenses can be purchased online.

A Virginia State Scenic River
Points of Interest • Boat Access • Parks

A beautiful 1760s plantation owned by the Eppes family sits at the confluence of the James River in Hopewell.

The Old Brick House was originally a warehouse and later a home for the Eppes family. This beautiful home was once a bustling warehouse and later became a private residence. The Old Brick House has been restored to its original state and is open to the public.

Fishing

The Appomattox River contains a wide range of species, including smallmouth bass, striped bass, white bass, sunfish, crappie, and trout. Fishing is available from public boat ramps and handicapped-accessible fishing pier open 24 hours a day. The public boat ramp and handicap-accessible fishing pier is open 24 hours a day. Primitive campsites are available.

The Appomattox River and ends at the CSX railroad trestle, and a rustic, very old trees. Open for tours by appointment only.

Fishing licenses are required for anyone fishing over the age of 16 and can be purchased from the Virginia Department of Wildlife Resources. Fishing licenses can be purchased online.

A Virginia State Scenic River
Points of Interest • Boat Access • Parks

A beautiful 1760s plantation owned by the Eppes family sits at the confluence of the James River in Hopewell.

The Old Brick House was originally a warehouse and later a home for the Eppes family. This beautiful home was once a bustling warehouse and later became a private residence. The Old Brick House has been restored to its original state and is open to the public.

Fishing

The Appomattox River contains a wide range of species, including smallmouth bass, striped bass, white bass, sunfish, crappie, and trout. Fishing is available from public boat ramps and handicapped-accessible fishing pier open 24 hours a day. The public boat ramp and handicap-accessible fishing pier is open 24 hours a day. Primitive campsites are available.

The Appomattox River and ends at the CSX railroad trestle, and a rustic, very old trees. Open for tours by appointment only.

Fishing licenses are required for anyone fishing over the age of 16 and can be purchased from the Virginia Department of Wildlife Resources. Fishing licenses can be purchased online.

A Virginia State Scenic River
Points of Interest • Boat Access • Parks

A beautiful 1760s plantation owned by the Eppes family sits at the confluence of the James River in Hopewell.

The Old Brick House was originally a warehouse and later a home for the Eppes family. This beautiful home was once a bustling warehouse and later became a private residence. The Old Brick House has been restored to its original state and is open to the public.

Fishing

The Appomattox River contains a wide range of species, including smallmouth bass, striped bass, white bass, sunfish, crappie, and trout. Fishing is available from public boat ramps and handicapped-accessible fishing pier open 24 hours a day. The public boat ramp and handicap-accessible fishing pier is open 24 hours a day. Primitive campsites are available.

The Appomattox River and ends at the CSX railroad trestle, and a rustic, very old trees. Open for tours by appointment only.

Fishing licenses are required for anyone fishing over the age of 16 and can be purchased from the Virginia Department of Wildlife Resources. Fishing licenses can be purchased online.

A Virginia State Scenic River
Points of Interest • Boat Access • Parks

A beautiful 1760s plantation owned by the Eppes family sits at the confluence of the James River in Hopewell.

The Old Brick House was originally a warehouse and later a home for the Eppes family. This beautiful home was once a bustling warehouse and later became a private residence. The Old Brick House has been restored to its original state and is open to the public.

Fishing

The Appomattox River contains a wide range of species, including smallmouth bass, striped bass, white bass, sunfish, crappie, and trout. Fishing is available from public boat ramps and handicapped-accessible fishing pier open 24 hours a day. The public boat ramp and handicap-accessible fishing pier is open 24 hours a day. Primitive campsites are available.

The Appomattox River and ends at the CSX railroad trestle, and a rustic, very old trees. Open for tours by appointment only.

Fishing licenses are required for anyone fishing over the age of 16 and can be purchased from the Virginia Department of Wildlife Resources. Fishing licenses can be purchased online.

A Virginia State Scenic River
Points of Interest • Boat Access • Parks

A beautiful 1760s plantation owned by the Eppes family sits at the confluence of the James River in Hopewell.

The Old Brick House was originally a warehouse and later a home for the Eppes family. This beautiful home was once a bustling warehouse and later became a private residence. The Old Brick House has been restored to its original state and is open to the public.

Fishing

The Appomattox River contains a wide range of species, including smallmouth bass, striped bass, white bass, sunfish, crappie, and trout. Fishing is available from public boat ramps and handicapped-accessible fishing pier open 24 hours a day. The public boat ramp and handicap-accessible fishing pier is open 24 hours a day. Primitive campsites are available.

The Appomattox River and ends at the CSX railroad trestle, and a rustic, very old trees. Open for tours by appointment only.

Fishing licenses are required for anyone fishing over the age of 16 and can be purchased from the Virginia Department of Wildlife Resources. Fishing licenses can be purchased online.

A Virginia State Scenic River
Points of Interest • Boat Access • Parks

A beautiful 1760s plantation owned by the Eppes family sits at the confluence of the James River in Hopewell.

The Old Brick House was originally a warehouse and later a home for the Eppes family. This beautiful home was once a bustling warehouse and later became a private residence. The Old Brick House has been restored to its original state and is open to the public.

Fishing

The Appomattox River contains a wide range of species, including smallmouth bass, striped bass, white bass, sunfish, crappie, and trout. Fishing is available from public boat ramps and handicapped-accessible fishing pier open 24 hours a day. The public boat ramp and handicap-accessible fishing pier is open 24 hours a day. Primitive campsites are available.

The Appomattox River and ends at the CSX railroad trestle, and a rustic, very old trees. Open for tours by appointment only.

Fishing licenses are required for anyone fishing over the age of 16 and can be purchased from the Virginia Department of Wildlife Resources. Fishing licenses can be purchased online.

A Virginia State Scenic River
Points of Interest • Boat Access • Parks

A beautiful 1760s plantation owned by the Eppes family sits at the confluence of the James River in Hopewell.

The Old Brick House was originally a warehouse and later a home for the Eppes family. This beautiful home was once a bustling warehouse and later became a private residence. The Old Brick House has been restored to its original state and is open to the public.

Fishing